The Institute of Post-Acute Care (InsPAC) Partners with POC-365 to Elevate Post-Acute Compliance and Quality

Innovative Collaboration Brings AI-Powered Compliance Tools to the Forefront of Skilled Nursing and Long-Term Care

Orlando, FL – March 25, 2025

The Institute of Post-Acute Care (InsPAC), a national leader in post-acute education and professional development, is proud to announce a new strategic partnership with Plan of Correction 365 (POC-365), an AI-driven compliance and quality improvement platform.

This collaboration combines InsPAC's deep commitment to elevating standards across the post-acute care continuum with the transformative technology of POC-365. Through this partnership, InsPAC members will receive exclusive access to the POC-365 platform, which streamlines regulatory compliance with automated tools to generate plans of correction, audit forms, and education strategies - all in real time.

"This partnership represents a major step toward smarter, more sustainable compliance in long-term care," said Aysha Kuhlor, MSN, RN, PAC-NE, Chief Clinical Advisor of POC-365. "By teaming up with InsPAC, we're reaching a broader community of providers who are eager to embrace innovation and build a culture of continuous improvement."

POC-365 was created by clinical leaders with firsthand experience navigating the complexities of post-acute regulations. The platform leverages artificial intelligence to empower providers to address citations quickly, improve care quality, and maintain survey readiness year-round.

"InsPAC's mission is to equip post-acute professionals with the tools they need to lead with confidence," said a spokesperson from InsPAC. "This partnership with POC-365 is an exciting opportunity to deliver cutting-edge compliance solutions that reduce burden, enhance efficiency, and ultimately raise the standard of care."

The partnership officially launches on April 1, 2025. As part of the collaboration, POC-365 will offer quarterly educational sessions exclusively for InsPAC members, providing ongoing support in an increasingly complex regulatory environment.
