Plan of Correction 365 Announces Strategic Partnership with Florida Senior Living Association advancing Compliance and Quality Across Florida's Senior Living Communities.

Orlando, FL – July 11, 2025

Plan of Correction 365 (POC-365), an innovative AI-powered compliance platform revolutionizing how providers manage regulatory citations and drive quality improvement across senior living and post-acute care.

This collaboration expands FSLA members' access to POC-365's smart compliance tools that are designed by clinicians, for clinicians. FSLA members will benefit from POC-365's ability to instantly generate customized plans of correction, audit-ready forms, and focused education strategies, all in real time.

"This partnership marks yet another turning point in the future of compliance in long-term care," said Aysha Kuhlor, RN, MSN, PAC-NE, Chief Clinical Advisor of POC-365. "Our mission is to make compliance smarter, faster, and more accessible. By joining forces with FSLA, we are amplifying our impact and empowering more facilities to achieve lasting excellence."

Plan of Correction 365 simplifies regulatory challenges by using artificial intelligence to instantly generate customized plans of correction, audit forms, and education strategies. With increasing regulatory scrutiny across the country, POC-365 has quickly become the go-to compliance partner for forward-thinking organizations.

"Our goal at FSLA is to empower providers with the tools they need to navigate today's increasingly complex regulatory environment," said Gail Matillo, President & CEO of Florida Senior Living Association. "Partnering with POC-365 gives our members an edge in compliance readiness, quality assurance, and overall operational excellence."

The partnership officially launched on July 1, 2025 and is now live on both organizations' platforms. POC-365 will also provide quarterly education sessions exclusively for FSLA members, ensuring staff are supported and survey-ready year-round. FSLA members will be offered exclusive pricing and personalized onboarding.
